

Symposium

In conversation with Prof Robert (Bo) Jacobs, author of Nuclear Bodies: The Global Hibakusha, Yale University Press (forthcoming)

February 23, 2022 [12:00 JST]

Hosted by:

DiaNuke.org & Center for Glocal Studies, Seijo University, Tokyo

Symposium Invitation

We are pleased to announce a symposium to discuss the new book Nuclear Bodies: The Global Hibakusha (to be released on March 29, 2022). The author Robert A. Jacobs, professor of history at the Hiroshima Peace Institute of Hiroshima City University, will be interviewed by Dennis Riches, Center for Glocal Studies, Seijo University, Tokyo and Kumar Sundaram, DiaNuke.org

Dates and Times in various time zones

Wednesday, February 23, 2022: 12:00-13:30 (Japan), 8:30-10:00 (New Delhi), 4:00-5:30 (London)

Tuesday, February 22, 2022: 22:00-23:30 (New York), 21:00-22:30 (Chicago), 20:00-21:30 (Denver),
19:00-20:30 (Los Angeles)

Venue: Online (Zoom video conference). The Zoom link will be sent after registration to the email addresses provided by applicants.

Registration: The session is limited to 300 participants. Please register at this URL before February 20th (in your time zone)

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdBpaF8MRP6BWYJQydXLNXA2cDil2bWzuQ_itwpJOCgQ-kYEQ/viewform

Participants should be aware that the event will be recorded, and the recording will be made available publicly. Questions from the audience can be submitted in writing during the symposium. The organizers will select questions and read them aloud to Prof. Jacobs.

Contact: Dennis Riches, riches@seijo.ac.jp, Editor, DiaNuke, editor@dianuke.org

Participation fee: Free